The Bank will calculate a spread adjustment to reduce or eliminate any transfer of economic value from one contractual party to the other party as a result of the application of the Replacement Reference Rate and if any adjustment or method for calculating any spread adjustment has been formally determined or recommended by the relevant administrative or regulatory body, the spread adjustment shall be determined on the basis of that determination or recommendation.

7.11 Commitment fee. In case of the commitment of the Bank to provide the Credit under the terms and conditions stated in the Contract, the Bank is entitled, during the Drawdown Period, to charge the Client the commitment fee equal to the undrawn Credit in the amount stated in the Contract, or in the Tariff of Fees or Pricelist. In case of the Credit provided in CZK, the calculated fee shall be rounded to whole Crowns (CZK) according to general rules and, in case of the Credit provided in the foreign currency, to two decimal places in accordance with general rules. If the Bank enables the Client to repay the Credit in other currency, the Client shall bear any and all foreign-exchange risk in connection with the Credit. For the conversion, the Exchange Rate shall be used as per the Bank's exchange list valid on the conversion date; namely, the "deviza/valuta nákup" Rate (foreign currency buying rate – cashless/cash) for the conversion of a foreign currency to CZK; the "deviza/valuta prodej" Rate (foreign currency selling rate – cashless/cash) for the conversion of CZK to a foreign currency. The conversion of a foreign currency to another foreign currency shall be done through CZK using the procedure defined in the foregoing sentence of this Article. The Client and the Bank have agreed that as of the date when declaration of bankruptcy of the Client becomes effective, the Credit is due regardless of the Due Date.

In case of termination of the Contract for the reasons stated in the General Conditions, the Credit shall become due and payable as of the date of termination of the Contract, irrespective of the Due Date or Final Due Date. In such case, the Client shall be obliged to pay compensation for the early repayment (prepayment) of the Credit.

- 8.2 Execution of Payments to the Debit of the Client's Account. The Client is obliged to ensure that sufficient funds are available on its accounts kept by the Bank at the due dates of relevant interest, principal, repayments of the principal, and Client's other financial debts in accordance with the Contract. The Client shall not be released from its liability for its debts arising under the Contract nor its debts arising under the Contract shall be decreased should the Bank fail to execute the respective payment to the debit of some of the Client's accounts kept by the Bank at the relevant Due Date.

A statement from the Bank's accounting books shall be considered as sufficient evidence of the debt arising under the Contract, except for cases of a manifest error.

If the Client and the Bank have agreed the automatic repayment of the installments of the Credit principal and interest by a transfer from the Client's Current Account and such a repayment falls on a Business Day, except for Mondays, the Bank is entitled to refrain from releasing the Client's funds on the Current Account up to the amount of the respective instalment of the Credit principal and interest starting at 00:00 of the day on which falls a repayment of installments of the Credit principal and interest. If such repayment falls on a Monday or a day which is not a Business Day, the Bank is entitled to refrain from releasing the Client's funds on the Current Account up to the amount of Credit principal and interest starting at 00:00 of the day immediately following after the last Business Day before the day on which falls the repayment of installments of the Credit principal and interest.

- 8.3 Order of Remittance of Debts. If the Client is obliged to satisfy several due debts arising under the Contract and/or from other commitment relationships to the Bank at the same time and the provided consideration is insufficient to satisfy all of the Client's due debts to the Bank, the consideration provided by the Client shall be used to settlement of the Client's debt to the Bank determined according to the Rules.
- 8.4 Deductions. Any payments made by the Client under the Contract must be without any deductions. If a deduction is required by legal regulations to be made by the Client in respect to any such payment, the Client shall be obliged to increase the respective amount so that, after the deductions are subtracted, the Bank receives an amount equal to the amount which it should obtain under the Contract.
- 8.5 Early or Late Repayment; Default Interest. The Client is entitled to repay the provided funds to the Bank even prematurely (early) under the terms and conditions stated in this Credit Conditions and in the Contract.

If the Client, who is the natural person - business, is in default in repayment of the principal or its due portion, it is obliged, commencing from the first day of the default until the date of repayment of the due amount, to pay the default interest to the Bank for the amount with the repayment of which it is in default, at the amount as stated in the relevant Notice on Interest Rates.

The Bank may require the default interest on the amounts with repayment of which the Client is in default, commencing from the first day of the default until the date of repayment of the due amount.

Payment of the default interest shall be without prejudice to the Client's obligation to compensate the Bank for a loss incurred as a result of the Client's default. If the Client repays the due amount within 5 calendar days after its due date, its obligation to pay default interest to the Bank shall cease to exist. The previous sentence shall not apply to the debts arising in connection with the Drawdown of the Overdraft Credit.

- 8.6 Repayment of the Overdraft and Revolving Credit. The Client may repay the Overdraft Credit Drawdown and Revolving Credit to the Bank at any time, however not later than by the Final Due Date. - If the remaining undrawn portion of the Credit is less than 10% of the Credit Facility and, at the same time, the original Drawdown Period has been shorter than or equal to 3642 month from the day of the execution of the Contract, the Bank shall not ask the Client to pay any compensation.
- 8.9.3 If the particular Relevant Period is shorter than or equal to 365 days in a standard year and 366 days in a leap year, the discount rate for the purpose of calculation of the Present Value of the Original Credit and the Present Value of the New Credit shall be determined at the date of the prepayment of the Credit or failure to draw the Credit in full as IBOR, or the rate replacing IBOR, or the Reference Rate or O/N index swap "bid" rate or Term SOFR rate, which shall be applicable throughout the duration of the particular Relevant Period, and valid 1 Working Day before the prepayment of the Credit or failure to draw the Credit in full.
